Terms and Conditions:

(1) The time scheduled for transmission will not be considered to be exact and it is subject to fluctuation due to news commitments from the Station. (2) The Station reserves the right to reschedule all time spots in the event of a new program schedule; new time spots will be compatible with contracted times. (3) The Station reserves the right to broadcast contracted advertising spots at times different from the scheduled times in the event that forces beyond our control prevent that the spots be broadcasted at their original times or due to preemption agreements from the station. (4) The Station reserves the right to pre-empt any program. (5) All advertising materials must be available at the Station 24 hours prior to its air date. (6) All sports and political advertising must be pre-paid. (7) The Station reserves the right to cancel this contract at any time if it is understood that the Client has not fulfilled the agreed terms and conditions and/or if the Client does not have or does not present proper evidence that the client owns the copyrights of material to be aired. (8) The Client shall own one hundred percent (100%) of the content. (9) Client represents and warrants that the content will not violate the rights of any third party, including, but not limited to any copyright, trademark, or rights of privacy of publicity and that the use of the clients content under this agreement shall not infringe upon or violate the rights of any third party. (10) Each party agrees to hold the other party and its affiliated corporations and licensees harmless against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, damages, costs and/or attorneys fees arising out of its breach of this agreement including representations or warranties contained herein.
